3. I am sorry to report the high incidence of illness that has recently beset us. Of the ten women employed on our Staff, nine have missed one or more days in the last two weeks because of severe head or chest colds, some of them quite aggravated. In several cases we've had to urge them to stay away, even though they were anxious to complete the project at hand. Our latest case was [redacted] who because quite ill while attending the IOC and had to be taken home. She has been withdrawn from the course.
